

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES:

Local Government

Invest in other support services to build capacity for your community.

By investing in my services, local governments, electoral areas and regional districts will enhance their operational effectiveness, improve community engagement, and ultimately drive positive change.

In a world where adaptability and strategic communication are paramount, the expertise of these services is not just beneficial—it's essential for thriving in today's complex governmental landscape.

Service Areas:

- ✓ Grant writing
- ✓ Coaching
- ✓ Communications
- ✓ Media Training
- ✓ CAO Support
- ✓ Policy writing
- ✓ Community Engagement

- Grant Writing: Small communities are brimming with potential, yet they often face significant challenges when it comes to securing funding for the projects and initiatives that can truly transform lives. Investing in grant writing support is a game-changing strategy for small communities and electoral areas eager to unlock financial resources and turn vision into reality.
- Coaching for Elected Officials and Administrative Staff: Personalized or group coaching sessions for electeds and staff aimed at enhancing leadership and communication skills, values alignment, and decision-making.
- Communications: Clear and transparent communication is vital for fostering trust between local governments and constituents. I can help develop comprehensive communication strategies to convey important messages, engage the community, and enhance public understanding of government initiatives.
- Media Training: In an age of instant information, local government officials must be prepared to interact confidently and effectively with the media. As a journalist, I can provide tailored media training to equip elected officials and administrative staff with the skills to handle interviews, respond to inquiries, and manage crises.
- CAO Support for Intergovernmental Relations: Collaborating with other levels of government to provide strategic support to CAOs in preparing for intergovernmental meetings. This includes developing agendas, writing policy briefs, conducting research on relevant issues, and crafting persuasive presentations.

